

About Tax Liaison CPA Accountants

We do more than just prepare tax returns.

At Tax Liaison, our aim is to help small and medium-sized enterprises turbo charge their bottom line with the right professional guidance.

Whether you require preparation of your tax return, get tax effective advice relating to negative gearing and investments, help in preparing or understanding your financial position, or you want to start a business or your current business has hit a wall in the current economic times, the hardest task is finding advisors with the correct blend of experience, expertise, systems and genuine commitment.

Tax Liaison is inspired not only to help our clients in the current economic climate but in the long term. It's our mission - 100% all the way.

With a team of business and tax advisors, we endeavour to deliver creative solutions to increase your profits, minimise your taxation liability, remove barriers to your company's growth, and reduce your financial growing pains.

Tax Liaison accountants and advisors are committed to spending time with clients in providing practical tax and business solutions, without the technical jargon. We are aware that Australian tax and business laws are very complex and confusing to small and medium-sized enterprises.

We provide you with tax and accounting solutions, whether you are a small business, a rental property owner, share investor, an individual seeking income tax advice with their tax return, or a retiree seeking superannuation tax advice.

How Is Tax Liaison DIFFERENT To Any Other Accountant?

- We make sure we understand your tax and business circumstances first. We are proactive in asking you quality questions that assist us in tailoring services and advice that fit your needs and goals;
- We are personable, sociable and have open conversations with our clients about other important issues such as family and life style considerations when we make business decisions;
- We know how important your time is so we supply you with checklists and financial templates that are suitable for you or recommend computer softwares and train you how to use them so to help you organize your records;
- We take a balanced approach and attitude towards taxation, savings, wealth creation strategies and life style needs when we provide you with tax and business advice;
- We endeavour to answer your phone or email tax queries on the same day you call.
- We educate you to understand your tax obligations so we can maximize your tax refund or lower your overall tax liability.
- You will be on our priority list of invitees to our seminars to keep you informed of new tax and business changes including exciting new projects that create value for our clients.

PRINCIPAL PROFILE

Henry Chow established Tax Liaison CPA Accountants in 1999.

Henry commenced his career with the Australian Taxation Office (“ATO”) in February 1991 in the Small Business Advising and Enquiries Division of Hurstville and Parramatta Taxation Office dealing with small business taxation issues such as capital gains, private rulings and tax law interpretation.

In March 1996 he commenced employment with KPMG Tax Division, where he specialized in corporate taxation issues for a number of multinational clients in the building and construction, retail, manufacturing and chemicals industries.

In September 1998, Henry decided to pursue a career in Business Services and Accounting, so he could help small business with their accounting and taxation issues. He contracted over five years with a number of Chartered Accountants and CPA firms to assist with end of year financial work and preparation of accounts and tax returns for various business entities.

In his 17 years business and tax experience, Henry has also been previously employed with a small financial planning firm, AGL and Ace Insurance.

Henry advises a range of individuals, businesses and small corporates on their tax and business matters. He works closely in conjunction with client’s book keepers, financial planners, finance people and solicitors.

Henry graduated with a Bachelor of Business Degree and sub major in Law from the University of Western Sydney in 1990. He is also a qualified Certified Practising Accountant (“CPA”) and registered Tax Agent with the Australian Taxation Office.
